NOTICE NO. 2.

The success of our Grand Closing Sale has been surprising. Our sales this week will be greater than before,

BECAUSE: This sale was inaugurated to close out the entire Stock, and, to do this promptly and effectually, every article in the building has been marked down to a price that absolutely abolishes competition. Nine-tenths of these goods are new and fashionable, comprising some of the finest we ever made. All suffer alike.

Early visitors will have the best choice.
Everything marked in plain figures. One price to all.
No goods exchanged or sent on approval during this sale.

VERY SPECIAL!

One of the most conspicuous features of this exciting sale is the supplementing of three thousand pieces Grandest Summer Silk, which was bought by our Mr. Tuohy personally while in Lyons, France, last autumn, for this Summer's trade. It just arrived yesterday, and we let it go as per with everything else, paid, at about what the duty cost, namely:

29 Cents.

We want every lady in Chicago to wear a dress of it as a traveling advertisement.

NOTE.

The greater portion of this Hundred and Fifty Thousand Dollar Stock comprises STAPLE GOODS, which were received immediately prior to the combination of circumstances which brought about this forced succession sale.

It might be wise to come in the evening up to 9:30. We will make great efforts to supply your wants also during the day.
